

SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS Symposium

FRIDAY, MAY 8 | FULL-DAY EVENT

UNIVERSITY OF DENVER | DANIELS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Learn how leading businesses and sustainability experts in different sectors are proactively confronting current challenges from a variety of unique perspectives.

Join the Sustainable Business Symposium at the University of Denver's Daniels College of Business. Hosted by the Department of Business Ethics and Legal Studies, this full-day event explores the current and future state of sustainable business in Colorado.

Interactive sessions will provide an assessment of sustainability trends, challenges and solutions.

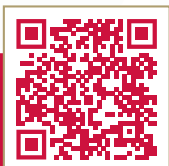

Topics include:

- Housing Affordability in Colorado
- The Future of Colorado Green Jobs: Building Resilience and Economic Competitiveness
- Data Centers: Preparing for the Future
- Brewing a Better Future: Sustainability and Community in Colorado's Craft Beer Industry

Connect with like-minded peers.

Breakfast pastries, coffee and lunch will provide multiple opportunities to discuss and exchange ideas.

Keynote lunch with U.S.
Senator
Michael Bennet

Scan the QR code or visit daniels.du.edu/sustainable for more information or to register.